ACCESS TO JUSTICE FOR VULNERABLE PEOPLE

TAG Second International Conference

Friday 2 and Saturday 3 June 2017 - The Law Society, London

This conference will address the very real issues surrounding access to justice, and the removal of barriers to ensure the effective participation of vulnerable people in the justice system. It aims to facilitate the exchange of perspectives, ideas and strategies between jurisdictions and disciplines.

Presentations and workshop sessions will include:

- Definitions of and/or identifying vulnerability
- Perceptions of vulnerability
- Young Defendants, suspects and witnesses
- Liaison and Diversion
- Interpreters and/or cultural vulnerability
- Problem solving courts
- The role of Intermediaries
- Legal rights and responsibilities
- Mental health, learning difficulty and Autism
- International Case Studies & Comparisons

The conference is aimed at all legal professionals, policy makers, advocates, health and social care professionals at all stages and aspects of the legal process, as well as academics whose interest lies in these areas.
