FLBA National Conference 2019

9th November 2019

The FLBA is delighted to welcome delegates to the 2019 National Conference, which will take place in the beautiful city of Oxford. Oxford has great transport links from all over the country (some might find the 24-hour-a-day Oxford Tube service particularly useful!) Two special venues have been chosen to host us. The Saïd Business School is next to Oxford train station and has award-winning conferencing facilities. We very much hope delegates will join us afterwards for drinks and dinner in Pembroke College's historic Hall. For those wishing to make a weekend of it, please have a look at the separate flyer on accommodation options and attractions in Oxford.
